

Advice fee consent form.

Consent to deduct financial advice services fees from your Hostplus account.

November 2021

This form must be completed in full. Please use BLOCK letters. Complete all fields marked with an asterisk (*). This request will be invalid if it is unsigned or undated.

You can consent to deduct all or a portion of the Advice Fee from your Hostplus account to cover the cost of personal advice where it relates solely to your interest in Hostplus (subject to an annual financial year cap of $3,000 or 1.5% of the account balance, whichever is lowest).¹

To be eligible you must submit this form along with a copy of the invoice within 60 days of receiving the Statement of Advice.

Note, you must retain a minimum of $6,000 in your Hostplus account after the deduction of the Advice Fee is applied.

Why does Hostplus need your consent?

Hostplus is required by law to obtain your written consent before the Advice Fee can be deducted from your Hostplus account. If you are not happy with the amount or the services described, you do not have to sign this consent.

What services has your financial planner provided for the non-ongoing fee you will pay?

Advice Fee deductions are only applicable to advice and services provided in your Statement of Advice pertaining to your Hostplus account.

How long does your consent last?

Your consent expires once the amount is deducted from your Hostplus account. This means your financial planner/financial planning business will seek your consent again for future Advice Fee deductions from your account.

How can you withdraw your consent?

You may withdraw your consent to the deduction of the Advice Fee from your account by contacting Hostplus, however your withdrawal must occur before Hostplus has deducted the amount from your Hostplus account.
